Details: Steve Clarke is a very diverse songwriter and recording artist, from New Jersey, USA. He experiments with exotic world / funky instrumental music. Steve plays acoustic and electric guitars, keyboards/synths, and percussion instruments. He records and manipulates everything in Pro-Tools, to create his unique and original fusion of sound! This is wild electronic / funky / instrumental / dance jazz-fusion. Steve blends synthesizers and drum programming, with electric guitar, bass live drums and percussion. He pushes the boundaries of instrumental art and modern digital production, to create strange but beautiful worlds of music! Steve likes to stretch the limits of music, always trying new techniques and exploring new musical forms and styles.
