One day five kids banded together from five different bands to play some different music in Tokyo. They've all got different taste in music and were from different places but what they make is a 100 pure and amazing guitar-pop songs. 15 MP3 Songs in this album (42:09) ! Related styles: POP: Japanese Pop, POP: Power Pop People who are interested in Fountains of Wayne Teenage Fanclub should consider this download. Details: Koyo, who played Bass in Brokenspace, started toots as a solo-project in order to produce some songs he had wrote. It was just a private project recording a home-demo without any advertisement. It was a turning point when they were offered a gig. He gathered four people to be members. Although they didnt have any CDs, some people asked them to play at gigs because of their good music. They had some shows at clubs and were hoping to release CDs. At that time, they recorded Girl and You made into a sampler CD with other bands on their label Thistimerecord. These songs werent well-known, but they were appreciated very much. They finally started recording in spring 2006. At the same time, they had a tour to support some groups on the same label, Skybeaver (JP) and Beezewas (NR), and will support all shows of The Wellingtons (AU) in Japan in December. The main vocals were fixed as Koyo and Yuko, and they found their own sound. In October 2006, they finished recording. In January 2007 first album toots mini will be released, and they have planned to do 10 shows throughout Japan at the same time. Besides, they have started recording a full-length CD to be released in autumn 2007.
