One Woman's Inspiring, True Story Of Courage, Determination and Hope. This Book Will Change Your Life Forever. A remarkable and compelling, true story of strength and courage within the human spirit in the face of enormous adversity. Life changing and inspirational, this book offers incredible insight into how you too can transform and redefine your life through your choices and not your circumstances. The Author's unforgettable, personal account of overcoming abandonment as a 14-year-old schoolgirl, left to live on the streets with nothing more than a small bag of clothes, some fruit, a few dollars and one book.* 7 words that saved her life in the darkest hours* Remarkable transformational lessons for conquering incredible odds* How to breakthrough uncertainty and doubt and make them work for you* How to avoid painful mistakes that drain your self esteem and sabotage your right to success* 3 powerful reasons to distrust the stories you tell yourself and the stories you've been told* How you can start to turn your life around in just minutes* The essential key to unlocking the door to your success* Four ways to power-start the real authentic you into claiming and championing your life "The cab pulled away from the emptied house and I watched as it disappeared into a street corner, my mother in the back seat, dark hair loose over narrow shoulders, my sister beside her, eyes wide staring through the rear window, one hand flat against the glass, fingers splayed like a small pink star. I lifted the strap of my green school bag, 2 sweaters inside, 3 dollars, and a few oranges. Enough my mother had said to keep me till tomorrow, then I could go get a job, maybe talk to the salvation army, they'd give me some place to stay. After all I was bright for fourteen, would be on my feet in no time. I wanted to be in that taxi, riding away to a new life up north, a step-father I might have called 'Daddy,' but I was too old for that. Instead I crossed the road and slipped into the scrub..."
