Powerful and Deep, Poems about Christianity and Jesus 99 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Country Gospel, SPOKEN WORD: Audiobook Details: The Millhorn Brothers (Greg and Steven C), have teamed up to provide the Christian Community with some of the most thought provoking and spiritually deep (yet simple) Christian Poems ever produced! Authored by Greg Millhorn, and Narrated and Produced by Brother Steven C. Millhorn of Expounder Ministries, these 99 short poems of the Christian experience, will bring glory to Jesus and are very evangelical in nature. My Brother Greg Millhorn has written over 300 poems to glorify our Lord, but we could only produce 99 of his hottest ones for this CD Compliation. I feel sure that these short but sweet little works of love will tickle your ears, but make your heart and mind be reflective of the Christian message and of our walk of faith in Him. Music was provided by Gary Lamb of Kagan online. Now a little about the author of these Poems: Born of loving parents, and reared with good principals, Greg Millhorn has come full circle, and has become a man of God. During the rebellion of Greg's teenage years in the 1960's and 70's, he was birthed into a time of unrestrained pleasure, violence and self-indulgence. After roughly 15 years of total debauchery and depravity, the shaft of God's Light broke upon him, and made of him a new man. He now spends his time in service to God, and is a good husband and father. Greg has written over 350 Christian poems, which are all being published and are very spiritually deep and edifying. This poetry work is just but an example of the many works of poetry and short stories that Greg has written and he continues to this day, being inspired of the Lord to communicate through his pen.
