Country, blues, rock-roll with Memphis Heart. 8 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, COUNTRY: Country Blues Details: Chris MacDonald Keeping the memory alive at countless venues throughout the country Chris MacDonald lovingly brings back the magic of the King of Rock-n-Roll with his tribute Memories of Elvis. An energetic and experienced entertainer, MacDonald has performed in the famous Legends in Concert stage productions in such cities as Branson, MO, and Las Vegas, NV, and has even appeared with Elvis Presleys original back up group The Jordanaires as well as D.J. Fontana, Elvis original drummer. He has received the great honor of being contracted by Elvis Presley Enterprises to sing at Graceland and Elvis Presleys Heartbreak Hotel for six consecutive years. His full production show with a dynamic concert band and dancers has consistently sold out venues in South Florida and throughout the U.S, including the most recent performances at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts and the Seminole Hard Rock Hotel and Casino. Not only is the charismatic MacDonald superb in performing as Elvis, this versatile performer has an extensive repertoire spanning from the 50's through today including contemporary country music tunes in addition to some of his own original music. MacDonalds solid vocals have also earned him Broward Countys Florida Country Music Associations (FCMA) Male Vocalist of the Year award and a feature track on The Deuces Wild compilation CD which received the FCMA Best CD of the Year award. With a new original country CD entitled Take Me Back, just released, MacDonald is looking forward to entertaining an audience with his own music. If you enjoy Elvis, Jerry Lee, Ricky Nelson and a little blues in your country take a listen to this man with the Memphis Heart. . For more info : chrismacdonaldselvisand chrismacdonaldcountry.com
