One can put it in the same vein as Rickie Lee Jones or Sheryl Crow, but it's a great CD no matter how you describe it. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, ROCK: Acoustic Details: There's no one else making music that sounds like Deb's right now. One can put it in the same vein as Rickie Lee Jones or Sheryl Crow, or one can say her live performances draw from Chet Baker or Tom Petty, but that's really all a matter of opinion. Deb's mission is to stay true to her voice in an honest way that celebrates life in all of its aspects; from difficult to easy. To this end, she has spent much of the past few years working with the finest musicians and audiences that she can find to create memorable live and recorded performances. Here is the bio: She comes from all over New England. For the past eight years, she has been writing music, practicing guitar, and recording three albums. She has driven all over this country playing shows in intimate settings. She has learned that people are the most amazing gift life has to offer, and she has worked with some of the greatest musicians she has ever heard. Is her music good? That's something you are supposed to decide. So take a listen. We think you'll like it.
