POP: Piano, POP: Folkly Pop Details: "She blows everyone else off the stage, wherever she goes" - (Timothy White, Billboard Magazine, editor-in-chief) Consistently referred to as 'the female Billy Joel', this Lilith Fair Artist rocked the nation with her mesmerizing piano skills. In 1998, her first CD, 'This Is The Way', was released to international acclaim by Billboard, Parade Magazine and Hollywood Reporter.
Now, with her second self-produced release, 'What Really Matters.', Eden follows in the piano pop/rock tradition, with an entirely new repertoire of songs, pushing the musical boundaries of classic rock with her intensely layered vocal harmonies. The array of musicians and engineers on the project include those who've worked with Billy Idol, Luna, Sarah Brightman, Joni Mitchell, Celine Dion and Fountains of Wayne.
We guarantee if you're rarely moved by burgeoning artists', you will be by this one. For those of you who are starved for the return of the classic artist', this array of pop, rock, blues, wit and lyricism is for you. .
With blitzing hooks that will sink into your soul, to intense ballads that free it, it's a must have' for your musical library. 'Piano Based' Female Rock N Roll - Reminiscent of Billy Joel, Elton John and Carole King.... As stated by Timothy White, Editor -in Chief of Billboard Magazine "...she blows everyone else off the stage wherever she goes"
