Fiama's debut album "They Say Fala" is Brazilian, Latin and Rock-influenced tones fronted by one of the most unique, soft, wavering vocal talents you have never heard. The songs blend a delicate balance of the Portuguese and English languages that keep you listening and clearly understanding the messages of love, life and yearning for that special something. "As far as the people I have only met in spirit through their own mystical way of expression, well these include Edith Piaf, Janis Joplin, Maria Bethana, Caetano Veloso, Tom Jobim, KT Tunstall, John Mayer, Stevie Wonder, and all of the brilliant singers and musicians that we meet in tiny bars in Brooklyn. These influences have been my motivation and inspiration. " - Fiama
