hardcore, raw, real rap about gp the beast, where he's been and what he does. 19 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: GP the Beast is a determined, struggling artist, smashing in the game with only one thought and one focus, to get rich or die trying. After being released from the pen, GP hooked up with DJ Quick on the "Mausburgh Sugar Free Konnected" project. On that project, his song "Finally" rung so hard in penitentiaries that it caught the attention of the C.E.O of Deathrow Records, Suge Knight. GP then appeared on the "Too Gangsta for Radio" project released by Deathrow Records with his hit song "The Coff". GP has his own label which he has released all his own material. To this date he has 5 CD's and 2 movies, "Mackamento Uncut" and "Mackamenot Girls Gone Crazy", on the market. His first CD "Finally" shocked the underground scene, speaking on the friends who got him for his ends when he went to the pen. Then he came back with his second CD self titled "GP the Beast" which came back and hit them hard. Recently he released "Smashin N the Game" feat. Yukmouth, Keak Da Sneak, Messy Marv, Mac Dre and Daz Dillinger, ect. and then released "The Best of GP the Beast". The whole underground scene has really been feeling his music, style and flavor. He has exploded on the scene with back to back hits, like "Where You From?" and "We On The Map". His recently released song "In My Hood" speaks on how his success has cost a lot of negative feedback from the same people he grew up with. This song is on fire in the streets. This dude is so real it's incredible. After being released from the pen he has changed the city's name from Sacramento to "Mackamento". He recently dropped the new hottest selling underground DVD "Mackamento Uncut Vol. 1" with "Mackamento Uncut Vol. 2" and "Authentic Silvia" both to be released in January, and "Mackamento Girls Gone Crazy" and "Mackamento Soundtrack" both to be released in August 2005, so keep you're eyes open. GP is hot, you do not want to sleep on this cat. He is truly smashing in the game, breaking the rules and pushing the line. He is going to big, really big.....
