A blend of Rap and Science, this is how Hip Hop is supposed to be used, cultivating minds through rhyme. 30 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop Details: Hip Science The Human Body 101 Hip Science is the brain child of Oakland Teacher Emcee, Naru Kwina. Feed up with the current educational system, and the negative portrayal of Hip Hop in the media, Naru began working on the music and lyrics that would become a teaching tool in the classroom, as well as home. Along with the talents of Azeem, Reign, Thesis, Mama Earth, and Kasimu, he recorded "Hip Science The Human Body 101" and has now made it available to the world. Hip Science is a sub-division of Hip Learning which will take edutainment straight to the class room via live performances, and an animation DVD.
