Musical exploration of Antarctica; includes sounds of Weddell seals, Emperor and Adelie penguins, and Arebus ice caves 11 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Contemporary Instrumental Details: I composed this CD after spending some time at McMurdo Base in Antarctica where I was diving under the ice with a group of scientists who invited me there. I recorded nearly everything I could while travelling around Ross Island and its environs. When I returned home I started integrating these sounds with the musical impressions. It took me several years to complete the project.
