Details: Upon graduating from high school, Jennifer's only ambition was to make it to New York City to sing. With the support of her parents, she accepted a full scholarship to Fordham University and in 2003, the ambitious 18 year old packed up her bags and guitar, and put her dreams to the test. Within a few short years, this petite powerhouse has accomplished more than many would in a lifetime. She's become fluent in Spanish and Portuguese, traveled the world, and graduated magna cum laude from a prestigious university. She's performed regularly in distinguished New York venues, such as the Bitter End and Arlene's Grocery, where many of the greats got their start. She's sung back- up for Grammy- winning producers, won national recognition in various vocal and song-writing competitions, and even tasted the business side of music while interning at the legendary Atlantic Records for a year. Now Jennifer is fresh out of college and has big plans for the future. She's in the studio recording her debut album that will be released in October. She's also busy with her band performing dates up and down the East coast with a few festival stints in Latin America and Europe in late summer and early fall. With the voice of a diva, a musician's sensibility, and the heart of a poet, Jennifer's got the goods to take it to the top and is well on her way to becoming a force in the music industry. Says Jamie Carter, V.P. Ruff Ryders Music Lifestyles Division, " Although Ms. Jennifer Logue maybe small in stature, she has the heart of Lioness! I can without doubt, see her becoming a successful artist-musician. In this day and age, several artists lack such creativity, originality and energy." Ken Gorka of the Bitter End states, "I've seen a lot of great musicians come through here and play, I believe she has the potential to be another if she continues to stay focused." Michael Maietta of The Lion's Den, "She brought the house down when she performed here, I hope she returns for future showcases, we'd love to have her back!" Says Venetia Stephenson of Hot 92, Harrisburg, PA. Cumulus Media, "I think she's more than ready, she deserves a shot!" Terrence Dean of TD Entertainment/Full Surface Records (Father of Super Producer Swizz Beats) " If she continues to push, the doors will continue to open, yup she's on point." Alvin Garrett Lead member of Ruben Studdard's band Just A Few Cats,"Jennifer is Fire!" All in all, the best has yet to come for the artist from suburban Philadelphia. "I've got my two feet planted firmly on the ground", states Jennifer with her trademark bright smile. I can honestly say, I've put my heart and soul into my music and it has made the person I am today. Now I'm just taking life as it comes to me and being able to express it all through music has made it that much more fantastic."
