Angry, Bitter, Twisted, Destructive, and Unstable. 17 MP3 Songs METAL: Heavy Metal, METAL: Alternative Metal Details: My name is Jeremy. I'm currently incarcerated near Denver, Colorado. But I can be seen anywhere in the country, walking the streets and venting my frustrations to complete strangers, during my frequent escapes from the Institution. I'm 29 years old and a Sagittarius. My Favorite activities include any kind of activity that conflicts with the Mindless, Manipulative, Moral standards imposed by Federal and State governments, law enforcing, educational, and Religious institutions. I love Sex, Alcohol, Violent movies, Vulgar music, Driving over the Speed Limit, and cursing a lot. I feel Marijuana and Prostitution should be legalized. And I challenge any Pretentious, Conservative, Self Righteous, Religious Fear Monger who tries to force their Hypocritical, Brainwashing fallacy upon me. Yet I still manage to be a Decent, Respectable, and Helpful citizen of my community. Instead of physically venting my frustrations onto Brainless, inconsiderate, and Disrespectful people who truly deserve it. I do it through the ancient and wondrous art form of songwriting. Any Complaint, any Grievance, any thought that needs more exploration or explicit investigation is expressed through the harmless yet Blunt form of lyrics. Behind those lyrics lies a backdrop of emotion driven music. Happy, Sad, Angry, Glad and anything in between can be expressed quite candidly with just a few simple yet carefully placed notes. It helps that I have been a Guitarist, Singer, and Songwriter for the past 16 years. Yet my worst fears have already come to pass. The Authorities are trying to silence this form of Free Speech. They would like YOU and I to Conform to the will of our Corporate Masters. In the process breaking what's left of our Will, Spirit, and Individuality. Will you let this happen? If you can help me escape from my Dependency of a Socially Viable Existence, I can in turn help you BREAK FREE. My name is Jeremy and this has been my Retort!
