..... Texas Tattooed Lady (Jim Zgorski) My eyes first fell upon her Through a blue smoky haze I was kickin back in this Honky tonk down Amarillo way By the neon light I caught the sight Of a tempting tattoo Thought I recognized El Paso But it could have been Baton Rouge Curiosity got the best of me I bought that girl a drink When I asked her bout that tattoo She whispered with a wink She said, I got a map of the USA Up and down all over me And if you enjoyed El Paso Youre gonna love it in Tennessee Chorus: I love my country, of thee I sing Home of the brave, let freedom ring Oh, say can you see her mountains majesty My Texas tattooed ladys lovin me Well, I had to see more of her So I asked her out again And eventually I got to see Places I aint never been I felt right at home in Dixie Alabam to Caroline We went up and down that West Coast Borderline to borderline Chorus Now we walk this road of life together Sharin hopes and dreams Holdin hands into the sunset Its quite a colorful scene Every morning we awake and make our travelin plan And every night in the Texas moonlight I meet her down by the Rio Grande Chorus
