Shasta April 09-10th, 2005 by King Arthur's Court. .. picked up the SKY in Ia.. off to the northern-most of California.. Weed, and Mount Shasta, California.. Do you know Mount Shasta is actually not a mountain?? but is a magnificent volcano composed of overlapping snow capped peaks which at any moment, without warning is capable of exhaling her holy breath: fire, water, air, and earth.. and we only wish we could explain the character that pours out of her.. lets just say :: .. every single twitch of her molecular being.. .. she won't stand for it.. she might not even record.. .. a different perception of time she has.. .. she exists on her own accord.. .. Arrived within her greater sphere of influence on April 8th of the Year 2005.. at 4am.. after a length of time where upon being lost in the forest, we went to find the HOMESTEAD ourselves.. in pitch black.. in the woods.. in the mountains.. in the moment.. And we did.. Opened the door as MYSTERY called to us and entered the guest quarters.. something immediately jumped out at us!! On the walls, from up above and below, were Hebrew symbols.. Hindi, Latin, Chinese.. Diagrams more symbols.. The Periodic Table of Elements, pictographs, a drawn model of the solar system waiting for the sun to rise.. the glorious sun.. Did you see the sun rise today?? We slept as a new day began.. the kind of day that makes you wake up in the morning, put a smile on your face, embrace the human race, and make a vow there is never going to be another war.. the.. altered reality we call our weekend has now begun.. .. Kissed by the sun, we went into town for breakfast.. We grabbed groceries.. talked and talked.. turned on to THE SAINT GERMAIN.. we spoke with the people and heard tales about all the MAGICAL PEOPLE all around us.. we were actually treated with a strange, but familiar flare by all of the locals.. Some embraced us with a conviction never experienced by ourselves, and a few were truly disturbed that we had entered their domain.. .. We were at the tavern for a while.. the people connecting with us.. the Gold Room.. an escape.. and they invite us to what is called THE CHURCH.. A chapel of love.. there I want to be - a place where they celebrate and dance with you and me.. An old church converted into a COMMUNAL gathering place and home.. We orchestrated the flow of our being to the local vibes in their own respective musical realm.. .. We went on a drive into the mountains, top down, and you can see the stars.. It's such a clear night tonight.. purple and green smoking, streaking stars rocketing toward mother goddess Earth.. It's like the stars come out to talk to you.. Sparkle, sparkel, sparkul.. Folk us, focus.. tried to get lost.. found some springs.. a splendidly scrapped and abandoned car, only stopped by the SNOW LINE when we went too far.. and then back to HOME, and to sleep.. .. Today it seems like a magic day.. Why don't we go out to the forest and play?? And so we did!! To THE SOURCE, drinking from the cup of life.. We see how the sun plays upon the trees.. See how the trees dancing in the breeze.. .. Five spirits united in HARMONY in a space all together for the first time.. as the light of day has illuminated the commencement of the AQUARIAN AGE.. giving sacred medicine to her majesty as her (and his) omnipresent gaze strikes down upon us.. Wishing for everyone to see how love really should be.. A Spring Honeymoon with God and Family.. Composing a synthesis of sound from the edge of our minds unrehearsed-on-the-spot with no limitations other than the time it takes for the VIBRATION to be converted into electro-chemical energy transmitted to be received and interpreted into meaning by the master processor.. All that molten lava (liquid Earth) and minute tectonic movements really do radiate strange magnetic fields that profoundly affect the thought pattern of human brain.. the result.. a magic shamanic electronic psychedelic collage that sweeps you away into THE TRIP.. .. For all of us, strewn throughout the great spectrum of infinity, ..
