A hot, new mix of Hip-hop R&B from the Nu Hytes production team from Austin, Texas. 12 MP3 Songs
HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: The decision to title this album as a volume set is due to nu hytes compiling more than one album. Volume one, the first release, is a collection of Hip-hop/R&B songs written and produced by the production team (Richmond McIver/ Wheat Bailey) based out of Austin, Texas. It is a compilation of various artists. Around the time of finishing the album, nu hytes music signed Dana Clark and Solisa and placed them on two of the 12 tracks. Dana Clark sings on "For You" and Solisa sings on "They Will Fade Away." They both were American Idol finalists and nu hytes music is very fortunate to have them as part of its family. Another artist featured is Aaron Lindsey. Aaron Lindsey is a prominent musician/producer/arranger in the music industry and was recently nominated for a Grammy Award. He co-produced the track "Champ Strong" and sings on the track, "Praise You." Some other artists on the album are Eric Moore, Deidre Lyons, Julia McIver, and SaulPaul. Eric Moore is the Music Director at Christ Community Church in Austin, Texas and he also sings in Kirk Franklin's current choir. Deidre Lyons and Julia McIver are young artists with a promising future. SaulPaul is a well-known rap artist who has finished filming his documentary, "Tower to Tower."
