Details: PARENTING Magazine's Best Music Pick for July 2007! Disney's FamilyFun Magazines, "Our Favorite Things!" "The sweet, strong vocals, silly skits, and gentle morals will appeal to kids AND parents." Parenting Magazine "The husband-and-wife team of Princess Katie and Racer Steve deliver a sparkling album that effortlessly lives up to it's title, "Songs for the Coolest Kids". Alternative rock-loving parents will dig how much Katie sounds like Natalie Merchant (only much more chipper), and the high-spirited high jinks of Racer Steve. - Disney's Family Fun Magazine, "Our Favorite Things" "Who wouldn't want to see a concert by a band whose CD is called, "Songs for the Coolest Kids"? - The New York Times Songs for the Coolest Kids turned out to be an exciting new find for me. The alternapop-rock sound will hook you right away. Backed by a tight rhythm section, the small but mighty quartet pumps out 11 songs that are full of witty lyrics about respect, honesty, managing feelings, and dealing with bullies. But just because the messages are positive (and parent-approved) doesnt mean theyre preachy or patronizing. Cool Mom Picks "The duo's been a sudden success. Princess Katie and Racer Steve have already made their CD debut with "Songs for the Coolest Kids." They've just spent a busy Saturday filming their upcoming DVD." - New York Daily News NYC kiddie rockers Princess Katie Racer Steve were inspired to create music for children as a result of their frequent volunteer visits to children's hospitals throughout the New York-area. Several times a month, they dressed in costume as popular TV and movie characters to cheer up the children. In hopes of "stepping up" their visits, they decided to perform music for the children and

Princess Katie Racer Steve were born. Tell The Truth - a children's song about honesty and telling the truth. Rock, country, pop and dance music for kids with positive messages and songs about honesty, respect, telling the truth, expressing feelings and bullying. It's "music with a message, that hasn't lost it's cool!" Be sure to check out our second CD, "Fast Feisty" and our debut live concert DVD available now: princessracer.com
