Details: PROFILE Ruben Wolf was born in Cuba in 1963. His father Waldemar Wolf was a Venezuelan from German descent, and his mother a native Cuban. The music inclinations come to him from his fathers side Grandmother, Maria Luisa Escobar, who was in her time a famous composer from Venezuela. About ten years ago Ruben wrote his first songs, one of them was recorded twice by famous Spanish producer Alejandro Jan, he also wrote the music for a song which lyrics were also written by Alejandro Jan. He has written the melodies for songs with known composers as Norma Gonzalez who was notorious for writing lyrics for Rudy Perez and also William Paz who has written many lyrics for Alejandro Jan. Despite those small achievements Ruben decided to pursue a different career than that of music, but recently decided to get back on what he always liked, to make music for those who can sing it.
