A relentless comedy kick to the face... 15 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Comedy Details: There's no music in Slade's act whatsoever, yet you still walk away feeling like you just left a rock concert... It's never politically correct, it's always side-splitting hilarious, the energy is contagious from the moment he steps on the stage. When he performs, everybody in the room watches. This level of dedication onstage - especially in an age when most of the original comics are playing to the back of the room and over the crowd's head - is a refreshing change of pace to audiences and bookers alike. This in-your-face rock DJ has quickly risen through the ranks of Texas comics to establish a style all of his own. Slade is a veteran performer both stateside and overseas, having spread his trademark brand of intensity to audiences on three continents, nine countries, and more states than he can count. "Redemption" is his second CD, and transcends anything he's done in the past. It also features brand new music from Kevin Martin (the voice of Candlebox). Now a regularly touring national act, Slade has a show worth watching! It's a no-holds-barred ride through the world we live in, and as he is constantly writing new material, it's never the same show twice. Catch one of the nation's fastest rising comedians today!
