Hardcore, Trance, IDM, Big/Breakbeat; Mothers agree...its a musical treat. 22 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Techno, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: An array of predictable notes, completely organized together-- a sea of fluid motion, perpetual motion, heading toward the light at the end of the tunnel. The tunnel, polygon in shape has razor-sharp blades on the edges and as the victim falls down the tunnel the blades reflect with the light and the moisture contained in the underground structure to create millions of animated 256 color rainbows. As the victim falls, their life flashes before their eyes after the fate of the future and the meaning of life is presented to them in a format they cannot understand. A mixture of hardcore, trance, break beat, IDM, nausea. 22 songs, 1:19:40 (1.3hrs) total time, 806MB. Rendered at 1,411kbps. Joseph Burdick 2006. Jacob Mossholder, Pointless Productions "Tenfold is not your father's electronica...it grinds, blasts, grooves, booms, and breaks its way through every major genre and influence to create a unique, bombastic sound greater than the sum of its parts." Matt Killmon, velocity.60 Studios "A modern dancer's dream...perfect mix of contemporary and classical...electronic music with substance." Ty Cooper, VCU dance major
