Pop with a touch of power. 11 MP3 Songs POP: 80's Pop, POP: 90's Pop Details: The Claustrophobes were started by Don Hawkins and Stuart Thomas as a "project" band in 1999. The other two original members were James Neil on drums and the late Erik Kleven on bass. They recorded one CD which is presented here. The group played a handful fo shows in the Sacramento area before disbanding in 2000. Some of the later shows had Larry Tagg on Bass and Larry Carr on drums. Due to a printing error later editions of the CD show a photo featuring Tagg and Carr even though neither of them played on the recording. This CD is out of print and is available here on a limited basis. ALL profits from the sale of this CD will go to the Erik Kleven Memorial Fund.
