Details: The CD Treasures of the Heart is the first full CD released under by Thomas Sligh. The Treasures of the Heart CD is a testimony of real life situations and is designed to encourage and speak to your spirit. God is the ultimate producer of this project. Upon this CD you will not find a groove or a rhythm overpowering the message. The message influenced straight from the "Word" enhances the unique rhythms and harmonies. The purpose of the CD is to heal and uplift your soul and spirit. While listening, meditate on the journey in which the Lord is taking you spiritually within your life. In doing so, the Treasures of your heart will be revealed. In the Midst which is the first release from this CD, has been ministering to people all over the world. People can identify with the contents of this song and can feel God releasing the peace within their lives. It is receiving air play in various cities and receiving a positive response from listeners who are encouraged. Everyone will go through some type of storm. Listen to this song, and you will truly understand why a "storm" in your life is really a blessing. God wants you to mature and rely on him, and no one else. Other unique songs like "Job Song," "Take a Moment" and "Seek Him" are also encouraging people from all walk of life. Within the birth of this CD, a ministry also has been created called, "Treasures of the Heart Ministries." It incorporates dance, poetry, music and other elements of creative expressions to glorify God. Thomas Sligh and Treasures of the Heart Ministries is planning to embark upon their first live recording. This will take place on September 25th in Frederick MD at 3:00pm. It will be held at the brand new Maranatha Community Church of God. This event is a celebration to unit the community through peace, and will be entitled "Expressions of Peace."

Expressions of Peace the CD will look to be released in the spring of 2005. Brand new compositions will be featured from Thomas Sligh, as well as a live arrangement of the song "Blessed Assurance" to which Thomas is known for. Also featured will be songs from renowned author/flutist Dr. Bernard Brooks, and other guest recording artist.... This is just the beginning of what God has in store... Praise the Lord as the Journey Continues....
