The biggest draw, and what sets Adam and Darcie apart from other groups with a similar sound, is the vocals. The couples voices complement each other so, well, naturally that they sound like a single, beautiful instrument. They lay a solid foundation wit 13 MP3 Songs in this album (46:03) ! Details: Like a Steinbeck epic, Adam and Darcie, who call the Utah Valley home, have mastered the craft of storytelling. California Trail, talks life in a way familiar to all who listen to it, evoking a comfortable sense of nostalgia and daydream, as one journeys down the track list. A worthy and triumphant follow-up to their debut record, The Valley Where Im From, the new addition features a range and depth of instrumentation and vocals that honestly paints a landscape of the couples sense of community, and the love for one another that carries the music. The group on any given day is a tight-knit assemblage of friends, augmenting a chemistry between Adam and Darcie that is truly unique, but could be likened to a project of Brian Wilson on a good day. Friends from multiple other musical projects in the Utah Valley area, as well as Portland, OR join the two adding a capacity that fleshes out the vision that Adam, and wife Darcie, have so masterfully articulated. California Trail, brings a personal and sincere commitment to contemplative resolution, and musical sincerity, that most have written off as cliché that is, until they listen to Adam and Darcie.
