DOWNLOAD HERE

Premiere guitarist/songwriter from NYC. On tour with Ani DiFranco. Played with Natalie Imbruglia, Joan Osborne, Imani Coppola, Stephen King and Maurice Sendak. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, BLUES: Guitar Blues For the Love of Love Songs Details: Ann Klein has naturalized herself as one of downtown NYC's premiere guitarists and songwriters. Her credits let in Natalie Imbruglia, Joan Osborne (check out VH-1's "Before They Were Stars"), PM Click Imani Coppola (Late Night with Conan O'Brien and Vibe), Illuminati, Stephen King (audiobook) and Maurice Sendak (ballet rendition of "Where the Wild Things Are"). She has independently recorded 2 CDs: "Driving You Insane" and "For the Love of Love." Both releases were featured in Billboard (3 full length articles), and former national music magazines such as Relix. Ann has toured Europe consistently to incredibly receptive crowds, and has received support from hundreds of U.S. college radio stations and local press, both in the States and Europe. She has performed repeatedly on WXPN's (Philadelphia) "World Cafe", and WDST's (Woodstock) "Sessions." In addition, Ann wrote music/sound for France 3 (French public television) documentary on William Burroughs - to air early 2000. Ann will also appear on Sara Lee's forthcoming album, with contributions from the Indigo Girls and Ani DiFranco among former famers. If you like great songwriting, great guitar playing, humor, darkness, clever lyrics, pop hooks and vibe -- you'll get it from an artist with a proven INDEPENDENT track record.
