cPhour is definitely a great jazz band that will take you for a ride. Their blend of interesting personalities, high energy, and great chemistry is unlike anything you have ever heard. They are worthy of many repeated listenings. 6 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Weird Jazz Details: cPhour is an original band that has many different influences including John Coltrane, Miles Davis, Branford Marsalis, James Brown, D'angelo, Erykah Badu, World Music, and many others. With all of these influences, this group takes on an innovative and unique twist to modern jazz. The members of cPhour are currently playing and have played with many great artists. The adroit Stacy Dillard (Saxophone) is currently playing with jazz greats such as Eric Reed, Winard Harper and many others. He is one of the best young saxophonists in the world. The high in demand Craig Magnano (Guitar) is playing and/or has played with Marcus Strickland, Jon Faddis, Leron Thomas, and many of the great jazz artists. Craig is also involved with studio work, recording, and is making very interesting tracks. The highly intense Ryan Berg (Bass), has played with many people including John Scofield, Ralph Lalama, Joe Beck, and is very busy playing just about every night of the week. He is also currently playing regularly with Anthony Wonsey and the Leron Thomas quintet. The fierce and passionate Jeremy "Bean" Clemons (Drums) is currently playing drum and bass/jungle sounds with Carl Craig and with the great jazz singer Andy Bey. This group of very individual characters have a great chemistry rivaling that of the jazz greats. Though words can't fully explain what they do, the music will certainly speak for itself. also check out RyanBergMusicfor more info
