Music for people who enjoy melody with a focus on respectful restraint. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK:

Progressive Folk, ROCK: Acoustic Details: I was born towards the end of July 1980 in a little town on the Central Coast of California. I started jamming on guitar around 10 or 11 when my father passed down his Yamaha FG-345ii when we were living in Uganda. I started writing songs and singing around 1994 when my family moved from Africa to the Cayman Islands. I have been in a lot of bands and play guitar and bass well, keys and drums for fun. I bought a Guild DC-E1 around 2002, which I use primarily and cherish. I have met and played with tons of cool and interesting musicians and artists over the years and done some recording, both in my backyard and the pro studio. I work on my music everyday, aspiring to travel and reach new and old heights. This is my 3rd collection of songs since I started compiling songs in 1998. I dedicate this album to the lovely Evelyn whom I credit for coercing the monkey off my back and on to her canvas. Enjoy. People who are interested in Neil Young Richie Havens Devendra Banhart should consider this download.
