Acoustic Folk Rock and Blues 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, BLUES: Jazzy Blues Details: Gabriel James is a Minneapolis-based alternative singer-songwriter. His music is a collection of folk rock, blues and jazz. His vocals are thoughtful and his guitar playing is distinctive. Listen for yourself... Appreciated by fans of Ani DiFranco, Coldplay, Ben Harper, and Tori Amos, Gabriel is currently working to build a following across the Midwest. He is a regular on the Minneapolis club circuit. His gig resume spreads south to Des Moines, IA, and north to Fargo, ND. His debut album, Dance Songs for the Narcoleptic, was released in May 2003. In the Hands of Fools, released December, 2004, is Gabriel's declaration of his musical talents. As a professional independent musician, Gabriel James works with like-minded professionals to maintain quality relationships with music venues and fans alike. He is currently booking colleges and clubs in the Midwest, and is planning an extensive festival tour in the Summer of 2005. With his loop recorder at his feet, Gabriel has perfected his solo show for smaller venues. For the larger, club-like shows, he maintains a well-rehearsed schooled ensemble with drummer Jeremy Johnson, upright bassist/vocalist Kellie Nitz, Erik Naslund on trumpet. Guest musicians often appear on stage with Gabriel, keeping every performance unique and connecting audiences to a wide variety of independent music.
