Details: I put out a song called "6niggaz 5Bluntz" and a lot of strippers kept tellin me that they danced off that song at the club. I decided to make the strippers a song and "Shimmy Shimmy" was created. Originally, I thought I would put the song out and give it to all the strippers in the hood and be done with it. But as more and more strippers danced off the song, the buzz grew ten fold. I started recieving lots of request for shows, request from the club dj's, college radio, and sell a couple thousand records in the process. I never thought the record would do so well and it continues to do well to this day. I find it interesting when I shop this songs to labels and they tell me "they are not feeling it or whatever" and I have already sold Ghetto Gold!!
