Grunge-jazz. 7 MP3 Songs ROCK: Progressive Rock, ROCK: Psychedelic Details: If you love Jessica Simpson you will hate Mike Glendinning. That's right San Francisco's own outcast Mike Glendinning is sharing his first CD with the world and now you can buy his crap on digital distribution. More info on this on mikeglendinning.com An EP with many moods and colors, MACHINE IN THE SKY'S BINGE is for those who like a good guitar band. From funky guitar hooks to haunting vocals to melodic instrumentals this band that is from the San Francisco bay area can deliver what you need if you want to hear something different. This is part of a review from the Chobot College Spectator from March 7, 2002. "All the members have their own individual influences that effect their playing. I believe it is this diversity among them that really makes them sound different. They are able to take those preferences and mesh them together to manufacture their own type of music that is hard, yet mellow at the same time. Another great aspect is the awesome guitar licks thrown in most of their songs. One song may start out with a mellow bassline, and the next thing you know, your head is uncontrollably nodding to the beat of the rock'n'roll."
