This music is hard, dancy, melodic, moving trance - it will make you jump, laugh and cry all at the same time. 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Trance, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: mAleX== Hey. I'm mAleX, and I've been asked to write a bit about myself, so here goes. I am a Christian teen from Central Ohio who loves to listen to, and write, electronic dance music. My experience writing dance music goes back to designing and programming video games, where I found myself saddled with the task of writing the music as well. That was only about 2 years ago, so I can rightfully be considered a newbie, albeit an established one. ;) Nowadays, I write my music with the sole purpose of entertaining thoughtful people in mind. If you can be listening to one of my songs, bouncing at 145 beats per minute, and suddenly wonder what the meaning of life is, I've succeeded at my goal. My mindset as a Christian also helps me to embed meaning into my songs. This is my second album. I've entitled it 'Surreality' because our world is just too weird to be a coincidence. Even if you don't agree with all of my opinions, you should give my music a chance. Maybe you'll enjoy it! Tracks== -==Surreality There's a war over your soul going on in a parallel reality that you can neither see nor touch; a surreality that will soon envelop the world as we know it. Have you prepared yourself? -==Time A precious resource given to us by God. What will you do with yours? -==Consequence 'A' equals 'B'. If 'A' then 'B'. 'Sin' equals 'Separation from God'. If 'Sin' then 'Separation from God'. -==Alien We as Christ Followers should be, and frequently are, alienated by a fallen world. Don't worry, it's just another jewel in the crown. -==Horizon 2.1 I see A New Horizon. -==SetThemFree The people are in an invisible cage. Their slavery is self-induced. Who can convince them to free themselves? -==Lattice God's surreality - so complex, so ordered, it is impossible to entirely fathom. -==Disconnected Do you feel disconnected? -==Don'tFailMeNow There is very little as pointless as a Christian who has turned his back on Christ. -==Weep A lament for unrepentant souls throughout time. 'I sit here, I weep, I beg, I plead. How stubborn can they be? They refuse to listen to me.' -==Victory The war has been won. How many of us will survive the final march? -==Becoming Yours From chaos to order I abandon the night I surrender myself that I may enter Your Light
