Reviews From out of the dust of Silver City, New Mexico comes a brand new voice that could have huge success in country, blues, folk or even funk. ... An odd mix from the Southwest? Maybe, but Melanie Zipin's 13-song release is an energetic, passionate and eclectic blend of a great female voice, excellent instrumentation and good lyrics. ... Melanie's voice is allowed to stay out front where it belongs. "The Music," a wonderfully and simply-written tribute to the power of and love for music: "...I hope it rains. I hope it pours. Lightning strikes and thunder roars. Far too many revolving, revolving doors. But, the music -- takes everything. It takes everything heavy and makes it light; takes everything wrong and makes it alright; takes everything grey and brings it into the light, out into the light..." Kinda like her own music.
