Joe Spatarella - Singer/composer/performer Mike Zampi pours his passion into everything he does. His CD "No Boundaries" embraces that passion. John Perricone - Barber shop quartet lead and comedian I met Mike in 2001 when he and I first collaborated on some of his early country compositions. He needed a vocalist and I wanted to record a few of my own songs, so a long lasting friendship and partnership was established. I consider Mike a brother. I was very impressed by his ability to quickly transform an idea into a song utilizing his skills as an accomplished guitarist, percussionist and arranger, and making that idea a tangible entertaining entity. He will dig in and not stop until his vision is complete and that is a quality I admire. His songs are very personal and exciting as he has been open enough to grow with each composition. That has made it a joy for me to collaborate with him and be part of his growth. Jeffrey Archer - Veteran Singer/composer/performer Mike is an inspiration to me and his words are moving to the soul. I don't know how else to describe the words that I have heard but you know they are songs from the heart. I love what Mike has shared with me and I am grateful. Sheila Bartlett - Poet Office Manager When an accomplished multi-instrumentalist with an innate ability to arrange musical ideas decides to build a studio... something very special is born. Dave Booth - Singer/composer/performer From the well-penned ballads to the hook-filled, blues-inflected rockers to the sonically intense instrumentals, the music on this CD just knocks me out. Mike establishes a style all his own with this stellar collection of songs. Adam Book - Singer/composer/performer Michael is an incredibly talented musician, technician and songwriter. I met him in Nashville at a songwriters conference and we hit it off instantly. He just flat-out loves music and working with people making music! Eric Nelson Singer-Songwriter interviewed on VH1 I've only heard seven tracks, but what I heard had some "did he really just say that?" lyricism. The fun bluesy tunes stick in my mind the best. There's some kick-ass dobro too! Ken Gutberlet - Singer/songwriter/performer
