RADIO SILENCE is rabidly adept with technology, and are by no means adverse to peppering their work with ragged rawness. RADIO SILENCE revel in their uniqueness. RADIO SILENCE...futuristic, atmospheric, songs that bleed with melodic aggressiveness. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Below is some of the comments from our fan feedback page at our website. We thought their words speak volumes! Here we have a band with a ten year history. They formed back in 1995 and they have already released 3 cd's and "No Point of Origin" is their fourth one which they released earlier this year. Just a quick note that the bass player has the name Jon Lee Lambrou, maybe he has a Greek origin? Who knows, maybe I must ask him. As far as the music selection from Radio Silence goes, it's melodic rock with female and male vocals. They also use a saxophone, which is a very interesting addition to the whole music. For sure the older fans of rock music will love the music from Radio Silence, also the younger fans can learn much from their music. In such times, it's good to say that something nice comes from the USA. Even if I am not a huge fan of melodic rock, I found some really interesting spots during the whole album, for example, I'm drawn to the first two tracks. Last but not least, you can hear also a cover song of an Alice Cooper track. An above average release for the fans of rock music! ...Antonis Congrats!!! (re: New CD) I like "Tu Chupacabra"... Thanks! ...Ajay YEAH!!! I DO wanna dance on the other side!!! The bass tone is an awesome hook into the chorus! ...Kim I viewed two of the videos, "Try Not Thinking" and "One By One" ... Both Excellent! The music and video are both unique as I've NEVER seen or heard! ...Christie Can't wait to hear the new CD... heck the guide tracks sound great I can't imagine what the finished product will be like! ...Scotty Good morning, guys from Radio Silence Band. I live in Brazil, in the middle of a jungle, in the Amazon Forest in the State of Para. I love your sounds... all the instruments... The way you play your songs is really fantastic!
