A true west coast classic he is the first in his era to cross over with street style raps, heart pouning tracks, and guest appearences like james de barge, slow pain, l.a. nash, more. a must have for any true rap fan. 16 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: Since 1998 SEVEN has been making waves in the underground Rap industry, a wave that has spilled over to the mainstream Rap and R&B market. Although only involved in the music industry for a short period of time, SEVEN, has made a name for himself as a producer and a rapper. His name is known and well respected in Los Angeles, San Diego, Arizona and Texas. With beats that have attracted many artists ears, mainstream and underground alike, he has earned the title "The Latin Dr. Dre." It's with this reputation that he has had the honor and priviledge to work with music veterans and up coming artists such as: James DeBarge, KAM, Spyder Turner, CAZ, Baby S, L.A. Nash, Crooked I, and Sean Michael. He has also worked with various Latino Rappers such as: Slow Pain, Mr. Shadow, Nino Brown, Mr. Gee, Don Cisco, Bigg Bandit, and Lil Demon. Some of these artists liked his work so much, that they also contributed to his newly released debut album entitled "7 Million Ways." This album was entirely produced by SEVEN, and was released on his own independent label/production company named "Hellafyde Muzik" The first single off his album "take your clothes off(if you want it)" featuring James DeBarge, has been playing by request on L.A.'s Power 106 for the past few months, and has the potential of being in the top charts as a commercial hit single. All in all, SEVEN is a well rounded producer, that has the potential to put West Coast underground rappers on a level that can compare to todays mainstream artists.
