Style Details: SLAVE CHILD From the western city of Palm Beach County a musical entertainer named Slave Child has emerged. He was born on October 30, 1980 in Pahokee, Fl. and named Phildavior Lane. Slave Child was one of three children raised by a single parent (mother) carried on the responsibility of male seeing that his other siblings were females. During his childhood years, Slave Child enjoyed writing rhymes because they seem to take away the pressures and struggle it took just to survive everyday living. His writing became serious to him after the death of his older sister who was an up and coming rapper. One of his missions is to become a rising rapper to fill the void the music industry missed. For years Slave Child searched for a musical family that would take his talent, mold it and prepare him for the world to hear. He was introduced to Black Minds Entertainment, Corp. in March 2003. He left such a huge impression on the CEO that Slave Child was asked to come back the next week to audition for B.M.E's. head producer. Slave Child was signed the next week. Slave Child is a force to be reckoned within the music industry. His style of music will have you asking for more. With a very charismatic, attitude he is a very easy and humble person to work with. Black Minds Entertainment, Corp. is very proud to be associated with a fine young man. When you get to know him, you will feel the same way.
