Bradley Dean here. I am a 36 year old musician from NYC. I sing lead and play guitar and piano in The Chillbilly Band. We are a group of guys who play Country, Folk, Southern Rock, Good Time Original Songs. My writing partner, Bill Dietrich, and I have just put out an album, "Back Home". It was a labor of love a year and a half in the making. Whenever either of us would have 100 extra dollars we'd go back into the studio and lay down more tracks. Many 100's of dollars later, we have our album. Check it out. Bill and I are both Broadway actors. We met doing the national tour of EVITA last year. We were standing on a balcony of a hotel in San Francisco when Bill started humming this tune. He sang... "Three Nights in Decatur, Georgia I'll be fine Three Nights in Decatur, Georgia tryin to fix this heart of mine Oh my soul is full of sorrow but my bottle's full of wine Three Nights in Decatur, Georgia's fine" I said "What's that song?" he said "What?" I said "That song you just sang." he said "Oh, I just made that up." I said "You just made it up right now? he said "Yup." (pause) he said "I got lots of songs swimmin around in my head" We went inside and I got out my guitar and we wrote our first tune and we've been writing ever since. That's the story. In a year we wrote about 20 songs, the best of which are on our album. We think you'll enjoy it.
