About the different things that one may go through in their lifetime. As a young man coming of age in an urban community trying to find their way in this unpredictable world. 19 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop Details: After having much bad business, WHUP decided to be the first artist he would release on his own Caze Entertainment label. The street was still a major set back but as time went by he knew that music was in his blood and he had to act on his impulses. The change made a major difference to the sound of the new recording. He got a charge of energy through the additional new members to the group, which included long time friend Ruby Rube, young hip hopper Blockade, and one of the most dope engineers ever M-Dean. This time the album was all WHUP and it is a lot more creative but at the same time fun with inspiring and serious tracks, too. Another important element of this album and one that defines the substance of it, is WHUP's vocal play, which sounds more distinctive than ever in the past, defying many of the comparisons he has drawn before. On tracks like "Ride Wit Us", "How many", "U Cross Me", and the title track "I'll be W.H.U.P." are impacted with a sense of new emotion and high energy that will tear the clubs up! While songs like "Dajanara", "Written in Blood", "Same ole Hustlin' ", and "Conspiracy" have a more serious sense and share an air of intimacy. The tracks "Diamond in the back" and " Whut'd Whut" are more play list than the rest. WHUP raps every track with the unrestrained passion, both equally ruff and tender in a way that only a true rap star can deliver.
