Arlo Guthrie meets Jim Croce? A genetic splicing of Jerry Garcia and Gram Parsons? The next Johnny Cash? Deep-root americana. Not-quite-folk, not-quite-rock, not-quite-bluegrass. Just freakin' good. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: "Every song deserves to be an instant classic." - Pamela Polston, Editor, Seven Days Vermont. "Songs that fit the way you feel when driving home from a long day at work, hanging out on the front porch with a cold beer and good company, mowing the lawn, or holding your newborn baby for the first time. " - Mike Schaefer, columnist, Stowe Reporter. Not defying comparisons to Bob Dylan, John Prine, and Graham Parsons, and showing the battle scars of a personal musical journey from punk to reggae, delta blues to bluegrass, Bow Thayer's not-quite-folk, not-quite-rock, not-quite-bluegrass tunes teem with vivid lyrics that find a connection in everyone's soul.
