Capturing the right feel at the right moment comes very naturally to him any is the essence of his inspiring performances. Tasse, who has been a working entertainer for more than 25 years, has a reputation for being a consummate professional who follows his music of dreams and vision. Tasse, a saxophone and flute player, recently released his sixth album on His Indie label Bay Breeze Records, 'Mind Travel.' Tasse said the new release allows listeners to experience being lost and found all at once, while floating away, oblivious to earthly demands. He said the album delivers listeners to a place of peace and contentment only found once in a great while. Tasse is able to capture all of these true emotions, whether he is taking a jazz riff to the outer reaches of the listeners' mind or mellowing their soul to a comfort level that only the fortunate few are able to intuitively achieve. 'Mind Travel' will truly make listeners deepest thoughts of today awaken the spirit of tomorrow and musically clarify the unknown possibilities in a way that always leaves them wanting more, according to Tasse. All of Tasse's albums feature easy listening jazz arrangements. 'This unique blend of blues, jazz and rock is a crossover pop jazz style that reaches all ages. The music is 'danceable', visionary, soothing , sensual, healing . It grooves and leaves the listener desiring to hear more, Tasse said 'It's the kind of music used in motion pictures to enhance an emotionally charged scene.' Not only is Tasse a smooth jazz sax man with a penchant for always grooving out irresistible sounds that exceed all expectations, he also books some of southeaster Wisconsin's finest talent. Groups such as 'The 21st Century Beatnixx,' 'Peace and Harmony' 'The Major' and ' Rory McDonald' are just a few of the great acts that perform a variety of music in the tradition of Tasse's musical excellence.
