AWA and WMA 2006 nominee for Female Western Vocalist of the year, Juni Fisher takes us from a wild match race at a county fair track, to the banks of the Brazos, and a heartbreaking search for a missing horse, in her salute to Cowgirls, "Cowgirlography". 17 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, COUNTRY: Western Details: Ever since Juni Fisher hit the Western Scene, she has been winning audiences over with a distinctive style that's all her own. No wonder the Academy of Western Artists awarded her the 2005 Female Vocalist of the Year, and the Western Music Association awarded her their 2005 Crescendo Award. With the 2006 awards still ahead for the AWA and WMA, Juni is nominated for Female Vocalist of the year again, as well as entertainer of the Year, and Songwriter of the Year. From the Monterey Cowboy Festival on coast of California to the Riverbend Festival on the shores of the Tennessee River, the message is loud and clear...great songwriting prevails. Doesn't hurt that Juni Fisher is one heck of a performer, too. Her third offering of Western themed music is "Cowgirlography". It's a rollicking trip through the cheap backstretch of a county fair racetrack, a precision ride through the work pens with a lady vaquero, a horse lost, and horse found, a young wrangler's dying wish with an eerie reward, and love found for a lonely widowed California rancher and a lively Arizona widow. And wait till you hear Juni Fisher's treatment of the Leonard Cohen classic "Ballad of the Runaway Horse": it's worth the price of admission, but there's still more, in Fisher's chilling "Goodnight Good Pony". Cowgirlography will become a timeless classic in your collection.
