Details: This voice wont stay small long, observed the The Washington Post Express. Longley seems destined for a bigger audience. Even music icon John Mayer, who surprised Liz and fellow Berklee music students when he broke into an impromptu rendition of Lizzs song Queen, has described her music as Gorgeousjust gorgeous! The internet has been equally effusive about Longleys music. Liz was voted the No. 1 all-time female vocalist on Garagebandin both acoustic and folk categories. During the past year, recognition of Longleys songwriting has been building. She was selected as a New Folk Finalist at the renowned Kerrville Folk Festival competition in Texas. The Falcon Ridge Folk Festival invited her to be a part of their Emerging Artist Showcase. Her song "Rush" took first place in Berklee's annual songwriting competition and she was awarded Berklees top songwriting honor, the Scott Benson Scholarship. Longley was also asked to represent the college in a performance at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Liz performs throughout the Northeast as a solo artist, as a duo with Sarah Zimmermann, or with her band. Liz has played at the Philly Folkfest, Club Passims, Tupelo Music Hall, Phillys World Caf and the Kennedy Center. She has shared the stage with Nanci Griffith, Kenny Rankin, Livingston Taylor, Jonathan Edwards and Jesse Colin Young. Tags: pop
