A new and updated classic rock sound. British meets American roots pop. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Classic Rock, POP: 90's Pop Details: Singer/Songwriter Nik Everett is from Wilmington DE Philadelphia, PA and performs a very melodic and soulful brand of British pop meets American rock. His style is classic old school but still has it's feet in modern rock and pop. What separates him from others is his extraordinary voice, fine sense of melody and ability to change from genre to genre and still keep it interesting. 2004's "Summer's Gone" finds him with 13 strong songs from the heart with sharp pop songcraft. Co-produced and co-performed with the stellar talents of Scott Bricklin Matt Muir(4 Way Street, Ben Arnold) Marc Keith Moss (This Year's Girl, Bad Sneakers) and Pete Donnelly (Figgs, Candy Butchers) it exudes great musicianship along with the fine material. If you like The Beatles, Neil Young, Elvis Costello, John Hiatt, Dave Edmunds, Matthew Sweet, Paul Simon, Bruce Springsteen and Bob Dylan for example then do yourself a favor and pick up one of the very best albums of 2004!!!!
