An eclectic blend of Alternative, Americana and World music that will motivate anyone interested in creating positive change in their lives and on the planet. Enlightened activism at it's best... 14 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Power-folk, WORLD: World Fusion Details: Shawn Gallaways mission is clear: empowering people to take caring, positive action in their lives and in the world right now. He accomplishes this resoundingly through both his music and art. As a multi-talented guitarist, singer-songwriter, and visual artist, Shawn weaves music, song, and painting into a richly textured experience that calls for enlightened activism. In his latest release, Love Will Overcome, Shawn moves from the individual healing focus of his previous release, I Choose Love, to address global healing and restoration. Shawn says, It is about raising awareness and empowering people to take action. These songs highlight healing for the peace movement, the environment, our political system, communities and relationships and are delivered with a passionate plea for loving action. This recording features theme songs written for organizations including the Peace Alliance, New Energy Movement, Go Gratitude, and the Satyana Institute. I Choose Love: The Experience is a multimedia production that follows the souls healing journey through pain, confusion and struggle to emerge into the freedom of self-awareness, purpose, compassion, and joy. It includes songs, stories, dance, drama, photography, computer animation, film, and a series of original paintings that brings together the love of eight individuals as they transform their fears into a beautiful mosaic of forgiveness, peace and healing. This theatrical piece is currently in pre-production.
