"Voice of Hawaii" is Bradda Francis's first national release and true to Hawaiian spirit it begins with UA MAU, an homage to God. 200 years ago the missionaries brought christianity to Hawaii and it has been a tradition in recorded material since the first recording of Hawaiian music. This beautiful CD continues with traditional and original songs that exemplify the soul of a Hawaiian Man. Listen and Enjoy the insight into Bradda Francis's soul. --Bradda Francis is a 100 Hawaiian Man. He has the heart of Hawaii and perhaps a little piece of Elvis's soul since he discovered the King's music at the age of four. As far back as he can remember there were endless jam sessions at the beach with family and friends learning the old songs and styles which personify the musical heritage that is Hawaii. Along with traditional Hawaiian music including Uncle Gabby Pahinui and mainland artists such as Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, Conway Twitty, Ray Charles, The Platters and Smoky Robinson all contributed to the shaping of Bradda Francis's unique musical style and songwriting skill. Also Bradda Francis can sing in seven different languages.
