Silky lead vocals of Kristina Sophia take you into the moods of the Middle East. Cameron's Middle Eastern Lute and Egyptian Flute tracks carry the ancient emotional mysteries of authentic micro-tonal scales. 7 MP3 Songs in this album (50:32) ! Related styles: WORLD: Middle East Traditional, NEW AGE: Ethnic Fusion Details: These songs contain elements of well-known Egyptian, Iraqi and Greek songs and styles which I have performed on the streets and in the theaters of Baghdad, Cairo, Damascus, Amman and other Middle Eastern cities. Although I and Kristina are from the USA, we have studied the ancient micro-tonal scales of the region and when we perform these songs in their traditional forms local Arab audiences sing along with us. We have toured extensively in both the USA and in the Arab world in part to demonstrate how easily musicians can transcend political definitions. I have played the Middle Eastern Lute, or Oud, for thirty years and have studied with many Arab, Turkish, Greek and Armenian musicians. For additional more specific info about our musical adventures go to musicalmissions.com We are currently supporting the teaching of Iraqi traditional music in refugee communities in both Syria and Jordan.
