Charone's smooth, rich, emotion-filled voice is hip yet reminiscent of traditional classic jazz. 12 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Charone Campbell has been professionally singing since age 15. She grew up singing in the Church choir and after being put in the Alto section, she became bored and would learn all the parts-- Alto, Second, and Soprano. Thus, came her wide 4 and 1/2 octave range and love for harmony. At 14, her first group was an all girl group which she formed called "Little Women" in which she played lead guitar, wrote original songs and sang. Eventually, she moved on to fronting an all male group and moved to Canada at the age of 18. After living in and performing all over the Mid to Eastern side of Canada and Quebec, she came back to the United States and continued to travel and perform all over the States for several years. From nite clubs to universities to Vegas, Charone has done it all. Charone is talented in many styles of music (she can even yodel) and has done countless tours, shows, studio work, song writing and producing. She has a special love for and has settled into jazz in which you will hear in this CD. This special Christmas CD is something she always wanted to do and is truly a labor of love with great arrangements, beautiful vocals and superb musicianship. This is truly a "Listening and Feel Good Album." No "shock value here!" Her voice will wrap around you like a cozy warm blanket and entice you to sing along. Charone gives you a great gift of universally loved songs done exceptionally well along with an opportunity to just sit back and feel the comfort, inspiration and magic of Christmas.
