Southern Hip Hop with a WestCoast twist. 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Born in Lexington, Kentucky and moving to Southern California at age of 7. Creep was able to have the love of 2 totally different states. While in California Creep found the he enjoyed rap music after receiving his first cassette of LL Cool J's "Bad" album. Soon after Creep wrote his first rap. In the early 90's Creep and his family moved to Georgia, in the metro Atlanta area. While in Georgia Creep shined as a track runner. He had a slow start but would "creep" on the other runners and win a lot of races. So his teammates gave him the nickname "Creep". As track being his main focus Creep went on to college running track. After graduating Creep found his true love once again. He went in the studio to record a demo but did not stop recording until his album was finished. Before the album was done Creep decided to start his own record label and called it Bourbon Records. I'm comin!!!!
