Chart topping Urban R&B sounds from an exceptionally talented male vocalist/producer out of the dirty south. A guaranteed pleaser for any Urban crowd. 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban, URBAN/R&B: Urban Details: Male Urban R&B/Soul artist/songwriter/producer Siraaj is a classically trained vocalist, a seasoned songwriter and energetic performer. Siraaj's first successes came as a member of the R&B Group ADORE. He has rubbed shoulders with some of the worlds most recognizable talents: Destiny's Child, Carl Thomas, 504 Boyz and many others. After leading the group to victory on stage at the world famous Apollo Theatre, Siraaj suffered a crushing blow when the group announced a breakup due to irreconcilable creative differences. Siraaj set out on his own and has developed a distinct style of production and vocal presentation. He began his training in organized choir at the age of 14 and eventually majored in Vocal Music Performance at Chicago State University. Siraaj has continued to grow as an artist and has learned more about entertaining as a result of having shared the stage with so many established acts. Siraaj's drive and ambition has put him a cut above other artist in that he has produced, written and arranged two solo albums in two years. The latest CD "Life, Luxury Loss" being the most cutting edge and gaining widespread mainstream acceptance. Siraaj has performed at many venues mainly colleges and has increased his bottom line dramatically since his departure from the group. He has been added to Noteborn Music's (liscensing company) roster of artists and is currently having his music presented to major TV networks and movie makers. His CD "Life, Luxury Loss" will be available for purchase April 2007. The lead single "Jump On It" Is being requested by DJ's from Chicago, IL USA to Germany and is an example of the high caliber of artist Siraaj has been molded into.
