Details: Recorded in April 2002 at the Apache Caf in Midtown Atlanta, "Have Mic... Will Travel: The Live Experience" contains live renditions of songs from D.R.E.S.' first album, "Have Mic... Will Travel" as well as new material. Featured on the album are Atlanta favorites Chiedza, Slick Rose, and DJ Rasta Root. Backing D.R.E.S. is Live Wax, his 4-piece band. With a standing room only crowd in attendance, D.R.E.S. performed a blistering one hour and 40 minute set of his classic material and several exciting new joints. Accompanying D.R.E.S. on the song "Slow Motion" is neo-soul artist Chiedza, 2001 GMIA Songwriter of the Year, whose own album In The Red is garnering much critical and fan acclaim. Female duo Slick Rose, whose fresh sound has been captivating audiences around Atlanta, provide sultry vocals on "Milk Honey," another new track that had the crowd on its feet. "This album definitely provides a fresh perspective, and pushes the envelope even further to recognize hip-hop music as art," says D.R.E.S. tha Beatnik. This project is D.R.E.S.' second release with 4 Kings Entertainment. His debut album "Have Mic... Will Travel," released in 2001, won critical acclaim as the first 100 human beatbox produced album in hip-hop history. A Philadelphia native, D.R.E.S. currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia, where he is an ambassador for positive movements in underground hip-hop music. For additional information about "Have Mic...
