Details: I was born and raised in Donaldsonville, Louisiana., That's were I began my musical endeavors at the age of 13. In middle school; I particapated in a school band., that's were I learned to play the trumpet. I continued to hone my skills on the trumpet throughout High school and well into college at Southern University. It was at Southern University were I picked up the name Tin-Man by my fellow band members because of my mastery of the Instrument. I advanced to singing and playing keyboards in various bands, which made me more comfortable with writing, singing and performing. The result is what you hear and see today., Enjoy!
